

Name: _____

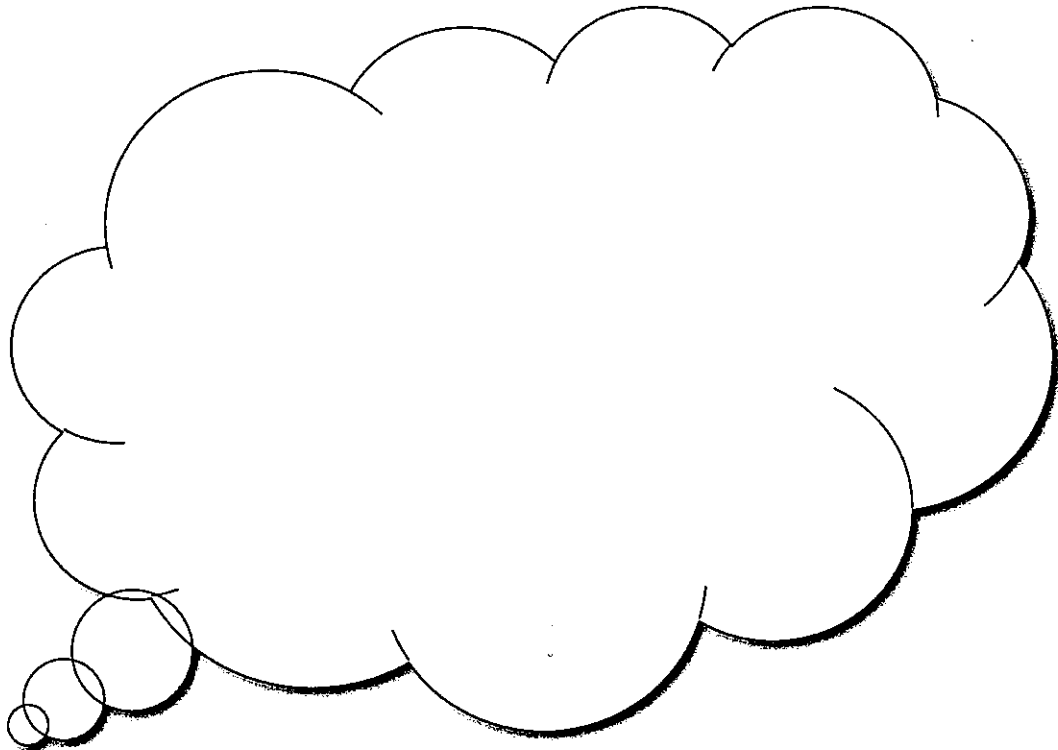

LATHER AND NOTHING ELSE

- Hernando Tellez

"Lather and Nothing Else" takes place during the movement called La Violencia (The Violence) involving bloody conflict between the liberals and conservatives in Columbia, 1948.

DURING READING:

1. What does the author do to create suspense in the story? Give two specific examples.
2. There is an external conflict occurring outside of the barber shop during the story. In the space below, sketch the external conflict the barber is thinking about when talking to Captain Torres. Provide a quote from the story that summarizes the external conflict in the story.

Quote from the story: _____

